OUTLINES.

A terrific northwest hurricane sweep over the North and West yesterday and ten persons are reported killed in Mississippi and eight killed in Michigan, with damages reaching in the thousands of dollars as a result of the fearful winds storm. Reports from various places throughout the North place the property losses heavy. Several important amendments to the Payne tariff bill were agreed upon at a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee yesterday. Frank T. Glasgow, Jr., a well known resident of Richmond, Va., committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday. Resulting from a collision with the British steamer Hero off Dunsmuir, the British torpedo boat destroyer Blackwater was sunk. A fire at Suffolk, Va., last night caused considerable loss and threatened the business section of the city. Former Senator Fulton, of Oregon, has been tendered the post of minister to China. Argument was concluded in the motion to quash the indictments against Governor C. N. Haskell on land fraud charges, at Tulsa, Okla. "Just a fool notion from reading dime novels," says Daniel W. Johnson, Jr., got him into the scrape of writing threatening letters to the Atlanta banker. "What is whiskey?" under the pure food bill was given a hearing by President Taft yesterday, who referred the matter to Solicitor General Bowers. The Persian Government is notified that it will be held responsible for safety of American citizens in that country. The Italian steamer Monsenso, cotton laden, puts in at Norfolk with her cargo on fire. Castro leaves the Guadeloupe at Fort of France, Martinique, having been notified by the British consul that he would not be allowed to land at Trinidad. This was at request of the American State Department. The French Government, on inquiry, states that it would make no contention if Castro were arrested on a French vessel in Venezuelan waters. A Georgia chief of police and a patrolman are indicted for murder for killing a man they were trying to arrest. The father and mother and two brothers of Mrs. Georgia Sampson on trial for murder of her husband, were witnesses for the State yesterday. New York Markets: Money on call easy at 1 3/4 to 2 per cent, ruling rate 1 3/4, closing bid 1 3/4, offered at 2. Flour firm, with demand quiet. Wheat strong, No. 2 red 1.33 3/4 to 1.34 3/4 elevator. Corn steady, No. 2 77 elevator. Oats firm, mixed 57 to 58. Rosin quiet. Turpentine firm. Cotton steady, middling uplands 10.10, middling gulf 10.35.

When Sully talks about taking cotton out of the hands of speculators he ought to explain where he stands along that line.

We do not suppose anybody outside of the Butlers' immediate circle of friends will regret the finding of the jury in the libel case.

President Taft must enjoy the fight for the Judgeship, as he has suggested adding the name of Hon. F. A. Woodward to the list of "receptive" candidates.

Those two men in Raleigh convicted of murder in the second degree in the Smith case had better be satisfied with what they got and not attempt to secure another trial.

Charlotte is determined to give those who attend the May 20th celebration the worth of their money, says an exchange. That's a way the Charlotte people have of doing.

If the administration really should adopt the policy of appointing Democrats to office what's going to become of the Republican party in this section? There will be nothing for it to hang onto.

It seems the men looking after the Eastern District Judgeship have gotten tired running back and forth between Washington and North Carolina so are now camping on the White House grounds.

It seems strange that the Democrats in the city of Durham should in their primaries nominate Republicans for Aldermen. Indications are that a majority of the ticket will be of that party.

Some paper has said poor people will have to paint their legs instead of wearing stockings after the Payne bill goes into effect. That isn't bothering Sampson county huckleberry pickers.

The real fight on the tariff bill will not begin until the Senate passes its measure and the two bills come before the conference committee for settlement of the differences. Then it will be a contest among Republicans.

Judge Long said he wanted to try no more libel cases, so continued the other three against the Butlers to a term of court in the fall circuit. No one heard of any objection from the Butlers. No doubt they would like for them to be continued for an indefinite period.

SPLENDID DRESSES

Dr. Smith on Education. Dr. White and Rev. Mr. Smith on Missions.

WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Sessions Yesterday Taken Up With Reports and John Calvin Anniversary Exercises at First Presbyterian Church.

Inspiring addresses by Dr. Henry Louis Smith, the gifted president of Davidson College; Rev. M. McG. Shields, superintendent of Synod's evangelistic work, and the Rev. Dr. Wilbert W. White, of New York City, the first and last named in connection with the special observance of the Quadricentennial of John Calvin and the address of Rev. Mr. Shields in connection with the regular sessions, were the leading features of the meetings of Wilmington Presbytery with the First Church of this city yesterday.

The address of Dr. Smith was during the morning hour and a very large congregation was present to hear him. "John Calvin and Education," was the theme most happily assigned to him on the programme and he charmed all with his able and eloquent discourse upon a phase of the great reformer's life of which little is known. His remarks were replete with most interesting information and his application of the lessons taught by the education of Calvin to present day needs was most ingenious and convincing. Dr. Smith said in effect that educators are divided into four classes—those who teach the young and are entitled to great credit; those engaging in training and moulding the thought and actions of another group of teachers; the teacher who stands at the head of a Nation, shaping its educational policy, and the man who stands at the head of a continent, at the head of an age, the very fountain head of knowledge for the world. John Calvin was qualified in all four classes.

With beautiful eloquence and in precise and logical sequence, Dr. Smith traced the effect of John Calvin upon education, beginning when a mere lad of 14 years and already a noted scholar, on up through his manhood, being so wonderfully precocious and energetic that in less than a year after he entered the great University of Orleans to study law, he was teaching the class. When forced to flee from his own country he went to Geneva and there built up a most splendid public school system, the most wonderful the world ever saw and under a compulsory educational law.

Dr. Smith showed how John Calvin's influence through the medium of John Knox, the English puritan, the Dutch and the Scotch Irish had moulded the education of the entire world, and it was a memorable fact, he stated, that the nations who rejected his teachings, though at the time the leading States of the world were now far surpassed in intellectual and commercial power, by those who followed his lead.

Dr. Smith said further that Calvin lived in an age when the world was awakening from a long sleep. The Renaissance; the man met the hour and we are today enjoying the fruit of his labors, while had he lived but a few years earlier he would probably have died unknown.

Dr. Smith was listened to with the closest interest and keenest appreciation by the large audience.

Dr. White on Missions. The address of Dr. White was at the evening session of Presbytery, beginning at 8:15 o'clock when there was an even larger congregation than during the morning. Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of the church, presided and the opening prayer was by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church. The choir had arranged a programme of special music and the service was one of extraordinary interest and pleasure for all who attended.

Mr. White bears a striking resemblance to his brother, Mr. J. Campbell White, secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement who has been heard here before and who is much loved and admired. He read for his scripture lesson a part of the third chapter of Ephesians, beginning with the eighth verse, which related especially to missions. In presenting the speaker for the address of the evening, Dr. Wells said that in the great present-day onward movement for missions two brothers had wrought a notable part. One of those brothers, loved and honored in Wilmington, had been heard here and it was Presbytery's privilege now to see and hear the other, a teacher, inspirer and a helper in the great missionary movement, a profound student of God's word and one whom all would hear with edification upon the subject, "The Eternal Purpose of God Respecting the Church in Its Relation to Missions."

Dr. White said in opening that he could congratulate himself that he was not born sooner; this age suited him; it was an age of so much possibility, privilege and responsibility. He drew attention to a word picture of a map of Christian Europe in the eighth century.

SENTENCE FOR "TIGERING"

J. H. Murphy, Manager Market Street Club, Given Six Months by Recorder, Appeals to Higher Court—County Attorney.

Those who have entertained any kind of an idea that there has been any loosening up of the lid in Wilmington have another think coming to them, in the language of the street.

There have been three important circumstances to the contrary within the past three days. On Monday the County Commissioners decided to offer a standing reward of $50 for each and every person convicted of violating the State Prohibition Law, and on yesterday the same Board passed a resolution directing the County Attorney to appear in all such cases as prosecutor, all this being capped by the Recorder with a sentence of six months on the roads for J. H. Murphy, the manager of the alleged club on Market street, charged with retailing.

The latter case attracted much attention and the trial before the Recorder was long drawn out. The prisoner was represented by A. H. Pait, Esq., and the prosecution was represented by City Attorney Marsden Bellamy and Brooke G. Empe, Esq. Eight separate and distinct cases were made out against Murphy, but the judgment in all save one was suspended in view of the sentence of six months on the roads in the other. The principal witness for the State was Officer R. L. Rouse, who worked up the case in connection with Chief Williams under the direction of the Mayor. A number of witnesses, some members and some not members of the club, testified to having visited the club rooms, secured drinks there and left money on the table when they left. Mr. Pait contended that on this showing, the State had not made out its case, but the attorneys for the State contended that this method of handling the intoxicant was a mere evasion of the law and held repeatedly by the Supreme Court of no avail to the defendant. Recorder Furlong tried the defendant on only six of the eight cases and disposed of them as stated. Murphy, through his counsel, gave notice of an appeal to the Superior Court and his bond was fixed at $500, which he could not give during the day and was committed to the county jail.

The case against Mr. Ben Crumpler, Front and Orange streets, charged with violation of the liquor law in the form of some drinks sold to a colored woman arrested for drunkenness by the police Saturday, was found not guilty and discharged. He was represented by Messrs. W. P. Gafford and Woodus Kellum. Several witnesses testified that the woman came into Mr. Crumpler's place intoxicated and she was run out of the store, animus on this account having no doubt prompted her prosecution against the defendant.

The action of the County Commissioners with reference to the prosecution of "blind tiger" cases was taken at a special meeting yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Chairman McEachern and Messrs. Robertson and Vollers having been in attendance. The following resolution was passed: "Whereas the county attorney is now receiving salary for performing legal services and prosecuting certain offenses before the law, be it, "Resolved, That under the condition and terms now established between the county attorney and the county, the prosecution of liquor cases before the Recorder's Court shall be considered a duty of the said officer."

A copy of the resolution was ordered sent by the clerk to Mr. Marsden Bellamy, Sr., the county attorney.

STILL ON WATERWORKS.

Defendant Company Had its Day in Court Yesterday—The Trial.

Again yesterday all day in the Superior Court was taken up with the continued trial of the Phares damage suit against the Clarendon Waterworks Company. Judge Allen upon convening court overruled defendant's motion to non-suit under the Hinsdale act and testimony for the defense was begun and continued all day. This was taken in shorthand by Mr. Meares Harris, public stenographer. The witnesses were Chief Chas. Schnibben, Assistant Chief W. P. Monroe, Foreman Louis Freimuth, Piremen F. Zellers, John T. Yates and W. H. Kernon, of the Fire Department; Engineer John H. Sweeney and Foreman J. D. Mote, of the water company; Messrs. Riley Smith, J. C. Boesch and others, while Mayor Springer and Mr. J. W. Jackson were introduced as character witnesses for the defense. The trial will be resumed at 9:30 o'clock this morning and it is now certain that the case cannot be concluded before Friday at the latest.

Another large congregation was present at Grace Methodist church last evening and heard an excellent sermon by Rev. T. A. Smoot, the pastor, who is conducting the series of meetings, which is proving a Spring revival of much interest in the community. The singing of Mr. Ramsey, who is directing the choir so efficiently, is pleasing to the large congregations that gather nightly at this church.

EARLY SPRING WEDDING

Miss Hattie French McEachern Bride of Mr. Ernest W. Hobson—Married in Grace M. E. Church Yesterday Afternoon.

A beautiful early Spring church marriage, of great interest to friends in this city and elsewhere, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at Grace Methodist church in the presence of a host of acquaintances, the parties to the nuptial vows being Miss Hattie French McEachern, the attractive and much admired young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. McEachern, and Mr. Ernest W. Hobson, of Mobile, Ala., a popular young man, who formerly resided in this city.

The happy wedding was a prominent event in the social life of the city and the unique rainbow ceremony was carried out splendidly. The church was decorated handsomely with a profusion of greens, Southern smilax and a dainty collection of flowers that added delightfully to the wedding scene. The bridal party entered the church promptly at the time appointed, the bride attired in messaline silk leaning on the arm of her father, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Julia McLaurin, wearing blue silk; Miss Irene King, attired in green silk; Miss Lillian Davis, in yellow silk, and Miss Lena Hobson, of Sanford, N. C., costumed in pink silk. The maid-of-honor Miss Merle McEachern, followed next in order, becomingly gowned in wisteria messaline silk; and with the bridesmaids, carried lovely white bouquets of carnations. The bride carried a handsome bouquet of bridal roses. Entering from the opposite side was the groom with his best man, Mr. Robert McEachern, of Jacksonville, Fla., cousin of the bride, and the groomsmen came down the opposite aisle, Messrs. Duncan M. Bornemann, R. F. Hall, W. L. King, and W. W. Pickard, Jr., the latter of Chapel Hill. Other members of the bridal party were Misses Lina McEachern and Bellamy Bagg, flower girls. Rev. Thomas A. Smoot, pastor of Grace church, officiating in the ceremony.

The young couple and the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, No. 111 South Seventh street, immediately after the ceremony, where they received the congratulations of a large party of friends, who extended to them best wishes for continued happiness. A handsome variety of wedding presents, consisting of costly gifts of every description, were sent by admiring acquaintances of the popular couple.

A delightful reception was tendered members of the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. McEachern, on Tuesday evening, which was greatly enjoyed by a concourse of friends of the contracting parties and proved a noteworthy and pretty social occasion.

Hamilton, members of the local court.

AFFAIRS OF THE PORT

Regular Monthly Meeting of The Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage.

IMPORTANT CONSIDERATIONS

Number of Matters of Interest—Mr. Jas. H. Chadborn Succeeds Mr. C. W. Worth, Resigned—Pilotage Affairs.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage was held yesterday morning, with the following present: Chairman James Sprunt, Commissioners J. W. Harper and M. C. Guthrie and Clerk L. Brown McKay.

The chairman reported that, subsequent to the decision of the Commissioners suspending the crew of the Hermann Olerichs, he had received a note from Pilot T. M. Morse stating that upon reflection he had decided not to appeal from the judgment of the Board of Commissioners with reference to the violation of the cruising regulations by the Hermann Olerichs, as he had given notice that he would, because he desired to recognize the authority of the Board and to be subject to that authority.

The chairman also stated that it was doubtless already known to the Commissioners, through the public press, that part owners of the Hermann Olerichs had protested against the decision of this Board in the matter of the pilotage of the steamer "Soutra," and had appealed to a magistrate's court in Wilmington for the outward bar pilotage, contrary to the ruling of the Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage, the magistrate giving judgment in their favor; but Mr. Heide, agent of the steamer "Soutra" with the Board of Commissioners behind him, appealed from the magistrate's decision, taking the case to the Superior Court, the Commissioners having been represented by their attorneys, Messrs. Rountree & Carr.

In the matter of the complaint of Captain C. A. Watts, of the steamer "Khalif," that there was unnecessary delay on the part of Pilot R. F. Newton in reaching his steamer, Pilot Newton was summoned to appear at the last meeting of the Board, but, owing to the detention of the boat that morning, he did not reach Wilmington until after the meeting of the Commissioners adjourned. A hearing was given Pilot Newton subsequently by the chairman and Commissioners Guthrie and Doshier on board the returning steamer "Madeleine," and Pilot Newton was exonerated from any blame in this particular case.

The report of the soundings committee for February, which did not reach the Board until after the March meeting (having been in the possession of Commissioner Doshier, who was not present at the meeting on account of the detention of the morning boat) was received and ordered filed. In reference to the findings of this committee, that the channel was shoaling in the vicinity of Buoy No. 5, the Board requested the Chairman to refer this matter to Captain Earl I. Brown, of the U. S. Engineer Corps, with the respectful suggestion that the channel in that vicinity be dredged without delay, and the Board has assurances from Captain Brown, in reply, that the dredging at the point in question will be accomplished at the earliest practicable moment.

The chairman reported that Mr. C. W. Worth, vice chairman of the Board, had intimated his desire some months ago to resign his office, on account of other pressing duties and impaired health. The matter has been deferred in the hope that Mr. Worth would reconsider his determination, but on March 22nd the Board received a communication from Mr. Worth as follows:

"With much regret I tender my resignation as member of your Board. I find that I will be unable to attend to the duties. With best wishes to each member, I am, C. W. WORTH." The resignation of Mr. Worth was regretfully accepted and, upon motion of Commissioner Harper, Mr. James H. Chadborn was nominated and unanimously elected to fill the vacancy. The clerk was instructed to inform Mr. Chadborn of his election as Commissioner and Vice Chairman of the Board, and to request that he qualify without delay.

The term of the clerk of the Board, L. Brown McKay, expiring on April 15th, he was re-elected, to serve as clerk for the year ending April 15, 1910. He was requested to continue his bond with the bonding company, as heretofore, for $1,000.

The clerk was asked to advise all pilots of the expiration of their licenses on May 1st, next, calling their attention particularly to Section 7, of the Act of the General Assembly of North Carolina which created the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage, said section reading as follows:

"All licenses shall be renewed annually upon payment of a fee of five dollars, but the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage shall not grant a renewal of license to any pilot who has refused or failed to perform the duties of pilot during the preceding two years."

The clerk was further requested to 3, 1879.

NORTH CAROLINA'S VOTE ON LUMBER SCHEDULE.

The amendment to the tariff bill to put lumber on the free list was defeated by six votes. Of the ten Congressmen from this State only one, Kitchin, of the Second District, voted for the amendment. The other six Democrats and the three Republicans voted against it. Had all the Democratic members from this State voted in accordance with the demand of the party's national platform the duty would have been taken off this one of the prime necessities of life; yet no one will say that Congressman Godwin and those of his Democratic colleagues who voted with him on this question are not as good and loyal Democrats as is the member from the Second District who made such an eloquent speech in favor of free lumber and voted for it when the issue was presented.

It is to be hoped that the Democratic party will learn a lesson—if it ever can learn anything by experience—from the occurrences in this session of Congress which will enable it in future to steer clear of such breakers and that at its next national convention it will be guided by the views and wishes of the majority in drafting its declarations of political principles and not allow itself to be dominated by one man or a small party of men determined to force the political tenets of that one man on the party as its principles. This is the chief cause today of the deplorable spectacle of a divided representation of the party on the floor of the House of Representatives.

It is true members of Congress are elected as party men and all members are expected to bow to the will of the majority of their party; but they are also elected to represent the people of their districts and their interests. Those Democratic Congressmen who considered it to the interest of their constituents that lumber should be kept on the dutiable list found a conflict between the principles of the party and those interests, and it was for them to decide which of the two demands they should obey. Whether they were right in holding that it was to the interest of a majority of their constituents that they should assist in retaining the duty on lumber is another and a separate question—one that we are not discussing here.

CHARLOTTE'S MANUFACTURES.

We had no idea Charlotte was such a manufacturing center until we read the clipping from the Chronicle given below. We knew that there were some manufacturing plants there, but that they are operated on such a scale and sell their goods over such wide-spread territory is something new to us. Charlotte boasts of her many and splendid cotton mills, as she has just cause to do, but she has neglected in the past to let the outside world know what she is doing in the way of other manufactures. It is a gratification to learn that this Queen City of the Carolinas is such a manufacturing center with a good trade already established from one end of the country to the other. The Chronicle says:

"As an evidence of the expanding territory for goods made in Charlotte, one of the clothing factories here, the Charlotte Trouser Company, is this week sending salesmen out into Indiana, Illinois and Missouri. As a result, Charlotte-made clothing will be quite liberally distributed in this new trade territory. This is but a step in the further expansion of the business of this concern. Other Charlotte factories keep salesmen on the road constantly and through its clothing, Charlotte is known to the trade from Maine to Mexico. The town has long had an established business in New York, from which city Charlotte-made goods have had a wide distribution. The clothing factories of this town are among its best advertisements."

A CENTER SHOT.

In the contest which has been going on for some time between the newspapers of Charlotte and some of those in South Carolina over the authenticity of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence the Charlotte Observer made a center shot yesterday—a solar plexus hit—which will stagger its antagonists. It shows that the May 20th affair is recognized as an historical fact by Thompson's "History of the United States," which is a legally authorized text book in the schools of South Carolina. The Observer says: "By the way, we have a pointer for the South Carolina sect of the malignants. Let them look into Thompson's 'History of the United States,' written by a distinguished son of South Carolina, legally adopted for use as a text-book in all South Carolina public schools, and required to be taught by every teacher in South Carolina. Thompson's History contains a good picture of the Declaration monument, gives full credit to the Declaration and explains how 'some historians confuse the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence with a lesser event that occurred on May 31.' The Declaration thus has official recognition from South Carolina as well as from North Carolina. If this pointer isn't the medicine, we don't know what is."

SLAVERY IN BIG DRY GOODS STORES.

Not long ago many of the dry goods houses in New York issued an order requiring all their saleswomen to wear prescribed uniforms systematically tagged and numbered. That was too much like slavery to suit the American spirit. But some of the houses have gone further and made the announcement that any woman or girl who wears "bangs, puffs, curls or rats" will be discharged. Every thing, it seems, is being done to destroy the women's and girl's individuality—to make them mere machines, which is the worst kind of slavery. Many of these saleswomen are so situated that they dare not make objection to any rules and regulations their employers choose to establish. Their very existence depends on holding their positions. This is their only means of making a living. With them it is submission to any and all hardships that employers may impose or starve. Such lives as they lead is little better than a life sentence to penal servitude.

OFFICE SEEKING THE MAN.

Down this way when a man wants to become a candidate for nomination to an office he usually puts a card in a local paper, which he pays for as an advertisement, announcing his candidacy straight out, though, some few still pursue the antiquated course of announcing in their paid advertisement that they have consented to be a candidate upon the earnest and persistent solicitation of many friends. Up Monroe way they do the thing a little differently as is seen by an article in the Journal, which is signed by a number of citizens stating that "the following good men, for the welfare of the town, after being urged by their friends, have kindly consented to allow their names to be run for aldermen"—an old-time case of the office seeking the man, and, if we are to put faith in the words of the announcement, it has had a devilish hard time making a capture.

THE LATEST DEVELOPMENT.

The News and Observer still sticks to its former prediction that J. Pierpont Morgan would name the man to succeed Judge Purnell in the Federal Judgeship. We do not know what developments it alludes to in the following editorial in its issue of yesterday as confirming its convictions. It can hardly be the fact that the President, in discussing the question of nomination with Congressman Small, made complimentary allusion to Hon. F. A. Woodard in connection with the office, which, we believe, is the latest development. The News and Observer says:

"Who will be appointed Federal Judge for the Eastern District? This paper said a few days after the death of Judge Purnell that the appointee would be named by J. Pierpont Morgan, would be personally acceptable to the tobacco trust and the railroad trust, and would keep injunctions on tap for the railroads and the trusts. Every day's developments confirms that conviction."

A Mrs. Turley, of Spokane, Wash., has offered for sale the topaz ring her ancestor, Captain James Smith, gave to Pocahontas for saving his life. She makes affidavit that she is a descendant of that Indian Princess, and that the ring is what she claims it to be. "How come" the innumerable Pocahontas men and women of Virginia allowed that precious relic to stray so far away from their State?

The men who are opposed to the tariff bill ought to be allowed to express their views on the floor of the House and in the Congressional Record so their constituents may know how they stand; and, besides, that is the only part in the affair they can take, their votes against the bill counting for nothing.

The Durham Herald says that now the politicians are through with the ward meetings the people will be heard from. We suppose the politicians are running Durham, as they do most of the towns of the State—and they do so with the aid and consent of the people, so where have the latter a kick coming?

We don't suppose that those Congressmen who are protesting so vigorously at the discrimination against the South in the Payne bill want to be understood as having been taken by surprise in the matter.

Raleigh is making mighty slow progress in running down the man or men who mutilated the police court records. We reckon all that was wanted has been made out of it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—And Raleigh seems to have had a jury that knew what was what, convicting that trio of toughs who caused the death of Dr. Smith by chloroform. The evidence disclosed that all of them had not been sober for years, but with a term of 20, 10 and two years respectively they will sober up for once.—Greensboro Record.

—If President Taft selects a Democrat as successor to the late Judge Purnell on the Federal Court bench, it will be because, in his opinion, there is no Republican in the district able to fill the position. Inexperience and possible lack of ability were the only charges brought against Mr. Seawell White, by the rule of politics, a Democrat is not entitled to the place, it will be to the credit of Mr. Taft if he makes his selection on the sole ground of qualification, regardless of politics, an influence under which Federal appointments have been heretofore entirely too much governed.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—When a public man plants himself upon the rock of common justice and equality for all the people, he is impregnable. But let a Democrat once fall into the sophistry of those who say that "I'm against protection and privilege, but if it's going to be bad for other sections, I want it for mine," he has surrendered his foothold and his usefulness is done. Nothing has so weakened the Democratic position in the fight against protection as this same compromising attitude of Democrats when it comes to their own sections. The country will never follow men who have no lasting, stand-up-and-lose confidence in their own cause.—Monroe Journal.

—Why should not the South be discriminated against? Why should the Republican leaders, who represent the East and Central West, write a tariff bill to suit the South? It is political folly to expect or to appear to expect anything else but that the South will be discriminated against in the tariff bill as framed by Payne and Aldrich, whose business it is to look after the special interests of New England, New York and Ohio. They do not represent South Carolina, and it may be retorted that if South Carolina is going to beg for her share of protection, she must show that she is entitled to it, not by the importance of her industries but by the size of the Republican vote. That is the plain but practical politics of it.—Columbia Record.

—Just how much do you know, or happen not to know, concerning the tariff about which our statesmen, near statesmen and demagogues are now, like the heathen, "raging so furiously and imagining a vain thing?" Precious little, if you are the average man and woman and gifted with a normal lover of candor. And yet, when the tinkering and the compromising and promising and the concessions and the star-chamber juggling shall have come to an inglorious conclusion and the bill goes to the president for his validating signature, the cost of the things on your thrice-daily table, the very shoes and underclothing you wear, may be radically altered in price for better or worse; most likely worse, seeing that the traditional exponents of "protection" are manning the tariff steam-roller.—Atlanta Constitution.

—The folly of a permanent endowment for the perpetration of a current fad finds irritating illustration in the case of the simplified spelling board, endowed by Andrew Carnegie. The deformed spelling reached its climax when the crest washed over the White House and swept Theodore Roosevelt into the ranks of the reformers. Since then there has been a steady subsidence. A number of the most prominent journals which for a time accepted the disfigured words have ceased using them. Others retain the use of only a few of the least objectionable. But meanwhile the Carnegie board must do something to earn its salaries and otherwise dispose of the income from the fund given it by the mistaken philanthropist. So it keeps on sending out its literature and making both its members and its founders as ridiculous as though they were endeavoring to establish once more the Ptolemaic theory of the universe.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

TWINKLINGS.

—Ellison—Halloa, dear boy, you look very sad this morning. What's the trouble? Green—I've just undergone a most annoying operation. Ellison—What was it? Green—Had my allowance cut off.—Tit-Bits.

—"It is true," began the aged tutor, "that I'm considerably older than you, but a man is as young as he feels, you know, and—" "Oh," interrupted the maiden, "that doesn't matter. What I want to know is if you are as rich as you look."—London News.

—"So you have broken your engagement to Charley Niperson?" "Yes, I simply couldn't stand for his slang. Why, the line of bunk that he handed out was so fuzzy that he had me going half the time. I couldn't get hep to him at all."—Chicago Record-Herald.

—"Go down stairs and bring me up a scuttle of coal, and then run over to the store and get me a cake of yeast, will you?" asked the wife. "I'm afraid of tiring myself out, dear; I've got to run in a Marathon race next week you know," replied the husband.—Yonkers Statesman.

—Admiral Constituent—Senator, your name has been mentioned in connection with a Cabinet position, hasn't it? Senator Greatgun—Er—Yes, I believe it has. A weekly paper in my home county remarked the other day that any President who would offer me a place in his Cabinet would be darned hard up.—Chicago Tribune.

7,650 NEW YORK DEATHS CAUSED BY HOUSE FLY

Special to The Journal.—Seven thousand, six hundred and fifty deaths are caused annually in New York city by the common house fly. The figures are given in a report to Governor Hughes by Dr. Daniel C. Jackson, bacteriologist of the water bureau. Compilation was made from a study of the habits of the fly and the way in which it contracts and transmits typhoid and other fatal diseases. "The time of greatest prevalence of the fly," says the report, "was in the three months beginning on July 1, and ending on Oct. 1. Corresponding deaths from intestinal diseases rose above the normal and fell off with the same high point and the gradual subsidence of the prevalence of the insect."

PRESIDENT AS REFEREE

Gives Hearing to Contestants on "What is Whiskey?" Under Pure Food Law—Refers Case to Solicitor General.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Washington, April 7.—The bitter controversy which has been in progress ever since the pure food law was enacted as to "what is whiskey?" was renewed at the White House today before President Taft as referee. The debate enlisted the services of many distinguished lawyers, among them Joseph H. Choate, former Ambassador to Great Britain, and John G. Carlisle, former Secretary of the Treasury. In addition there were present the representatives of practically all the big distilleries of this country. Mr. Choate appeared for Canadian interests. Mr. Carlisle represented distillers of his native State, Kentucky. Attorney General Wickersham, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the pure food expert, were among the Government representatives heard. The hearing continued for more than two hours. This was the second time the President had been called into the controversy. Under a ruling of former Attorney General Bonaparte, in consonance with an opinion by Dr. Wiley, all whiskey not aged and freed from fusel oil by several years of storage in white oak barrels which have been charred on the inside has been made subject to labeling under the head of "imitation" or "compound" whiskey. The distillers who purify their products by higher forms of mechanical rectification and re-distillation are anxious to have this ruling reversed, declaring they are suffering damage from the system of labeling now in vogue, whereas their whiskey is as pure and free from deleterious ingredients as the whiskey rectified in the old fashioned way and now regarded as the only "straight" whiskey on the market. Most Scotch whiskeys and some higher grades of rye and sour mash in use in this country are classed as "imitation" at present.

At the conclusion of the conference it was announced that the whole matter would be referred to Solicitor General Bowers, of the Department of Justice, who is to take testimony. Some of the distillers wanted the matter referred to a board, but the President decided that the Solicitor General was the proper person to take the testimony. When he has concluded, the President will act.

DIME NOVELS THE CAUSE

Young Johnson Talks About His Black Hand Letters.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Atlanta, Ga., April 7.—"It was just a fool notion I got from reading dime novels," said Daniel W. Johnson, Jr., the 18 year old boy who was jailed here last night for having attempted to extort $35,000 from Asa G. Candler, prominent banker and Georgia's wealthiest citizen, through blackhand methods.

The young man at first told the police that he had been forced by three strangers to write letters to Mr. Candler demanding the money. He now admits that the scheme was of his own concoction.

Johnson wrote the second letter Sunday repeating his threats of Mr. Candler "in case of his non-compliance," and then went to church and took his regular place in Mr. Candler's Sunday School class.

TO HOLD PERSIA RESPONSIBLE.

For Protection of American Citizens in That Country.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Washington, April 7.—The Persian Government has been notified by the State Department that the United States would hold Persia responsible for the protection of American citizens at Tabriz and other places in Persia where disorder exists. There are many American missionaries and teachers in Persia. This notice was sent through the American diplomatic representatives at Teheran.

—Durham, N. C., April 6.—The fourth of the ward meetings was held last night when the first ward met and named two men for the aldermanic race. The men named were J. B. Warren and J. B. Mason, both Republicans. There was a feeble effort made to name Democrats but the situation was such that none but those slated by the political workers of the ward could win. It was a walk-over. This was the last of four meetings called in the wards to name candidates for aldermen. The meetings were all, with one exception, called from the same source and from the present outlook it seems that Durham, a Democratic stronghold, is to stand idle while the Republicans capture the town. Up to this time eight men have been named and of these there are five straight Republicans and three to be classed as Democrats, probably all lifelong Democrats.

Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. # AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS

TWO YEARS AGO we opened our doors for business, setting our ideal of perfection at the highest commercial notch. With a bound it seemed to leap into popular favor, and the consequences have been wonderful upward strides, a constant bettering of our merchandise, a constant increase in varieties, daily improvements in our store service, and a tremendous increase in our great and growing business.

This record of successful effort was not made possible by our work alone, and never have we appreciated more than now our obligation to our good friends and patrons who have made this condition possible. We have never allowed ourselves to feel that in simply giving a customer his or her money's worth we had fulfilled our whole duty, but tried to perform that duty in such a way as to assure them that we appreciate their patronage.

In an age where The Best is the recognized standard of achievement in every field of endeavor, our store becomes a synonym for supremacy in clothes. A store where exclusiveness in style is more than a mere phrase—where merit of a high order is the unfailing stamp of distinction—where men are accustomed to come and choose with pleasure their apparel from season to season, knowing that the finest clothes the world produces are the clothes we sell every day.

WE ARE SOLE AGENTS FOR
"Stein-Bloch Co.'s Smart Clothes"
and Michaels-Stern's
"THE BEST WORN, WORN BY THE BEST."

These are our leading lines and they represent all that is desirable in high grade ready-to-wear garments. For Boys and Children we are agents for N. Snellenberg & Co. The clothing of Boys of all ages is our specialty, and we can demonstrate this assertion to your satisfaction.

The old saying, "every man to his trade" is no longer applicable to the trade of clothes making. Nowadays it should read "every man to his SPECIAL part of his trade," for that is the way it is done by the wholesale tailors who build our garments. For example: our clothes for young men are turned out independently of the older men's—they are designed, planned and executed independently, resulting in the creation of individual styles for the younger generation.

PEOPLE'S B. &amp; L. ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting Held Last Night.

Most Creditable Showing for Year.

The annual meeting of the stockholders in the People's Building and Loan Association was held last night at the home office of the company, No. 206 Princess street. Over 1,200 shares of stock were represented and the meeting proved a most enthusiastic one.

The secretary read a very flattering report, showing that the Association had earned practically 8 1/4 per cent. in 1908 and its financial condition is now better than at any time since organization. The old Board of Directors was unanimously re-elected with the addition of Major Thos. R. Orrell and the directors subsequently met and elected officers as follows:

President—Wm. F. Robertson.
Vice President—Geo. H. Heyer.
Attorney—Woodus Kellum.
Secretary and Treasurer—D. R. Foster.

The Association begins its new year with very bright prospects and will shortly open a new series, which affords a fine opportunity for investment.

A ROW AMONG NEGROES

Peace Warrants Sworn Out and Charges of Using Deadly Weapons.

Following a trial in the Recorder's court yesterday, when Joe Gooding, colored, answered to charges on a peace warrant and an assault with a deadly weapon, a beer bottle, warrants were later sworn out before Justice Bornemann, for H. W. Howe, a colored stevedore, and Henry Meekins, the prosecuting witness in the first case, by Gooding, who claimed that they were participants in the same fracas and made threats against him.

The trouble occurred several nights ago, when it is alleged, Howe and Meekins went to Gooding's home and after they called him out and a few hot words passed, an affray ensued, in which all three took part. Gooding is alleged to have used a beer bottle, but the evidence was lacking and he was discharged at a hearing in the Recorder's court. Howe and Meekins will be tried on peace warrants and assault charges on Saturday.

COLUMBUS FUGITIVE

Negro Who Shot Constable Still at Large—Sheriff Not Yet Returned.

A long distance telephone message last night from Whiteville states that Sheriff Richardson and posse have not yet returned there from their chase with the Chadbourne bloodhound of the negro Watson, who shot Constable Jesse Long, in Bug Hill township, in the Fireway section Monday night. Information yesterday was that the hound trailed the negro for some distance from the scene of the killing, but later word came from Red Bluff, S. C., that the fugitive had been seen there and admitted having shot a man but did not know that he was dead. The dog was taken from the colder trail and carried to Red Bluff, where it was reported he had again taken up the chase of the negro.

It appears now that Constable Long had searched the negro when he was arrested but the negro had concealed the pistol in the bosom of his shirt where the constable had failed to find it. He was originally arrested for clopping with another negro's wife and was regarded rather desperate, having previously made threats against Constable Long by whom he had been arrested before.

ENTER THE STRAWBERRY

Small Shipments Now Going Forward.

Car Load Expected by Last of Week.

The balmy Spring weather of the past two days has had a wonderful effect upon the strawberry crop and it is freely predicted that by the last of the week a solid car will go out from the Chadbourne section to northern markets. A few scattering shipments by express have already been made from Clarendon and Mt. Tabor and yesterday a crate went forward from the Pender territory by express from Burgaw. The early shipments from the Chadbourne section brought 30c per quart.

W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., who spent Tuesday in Whiteville on legal business and has a good idea of the trucking interest in general, says that while the frost has done some damage down that way the opinion is that there will be an average crop and the growers are apparently well pleased with the outlook. It appears the consensus of opinion that the crop movement this season will be about 1,800 cars.

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB.

Wilmington People Being Asked to Demonstrate Their Interest Here.

Lists are now being circulated with a view of getting as many signers as possible to see what will be the prospects of giving the musical association of the University of North Carolina a date in this city. The association this season is said to be much stronger than ever before and those comprising the same will clearly demonstrate to the public their careful training and that much time has been devoted along this line.

It is sincerely hoped that Wilmington people will have enough pride in the State University to greet the students with the S. R. O. sign. The programme will be entertaining from start to finish. Reserved seats have been placed within reach of all, 75 cents.

THIRD DISTRICT PYTHIANS.

Call Issued for Meeting at Mount Olive April 15th—Programme.

Mintz, of Mount Olive, to attend and respond to the toast "Damon" at the Third District Meeting, K. of P., to be held at Mount Olive on April 15th. The district includes lodges at Goldsboro, Rocky Mount, Wilson, Smithfield, Mount Olive, Clayton, Spring Hope, Faison, Warsaw, Nashville and Elm City, and a large attendance is expected. The meeting will be called to order at 4 P. M. on the afternoon of the 15th for the transaction of business and will be followed by degree work and an elaborate banquet at night. There will be prominent speakers on many phases of Pythian work and it is not unlikely that a large delegation from the Wilmington lodges will attend, going up on the evening train of the 15th and returning the following morning with no appreciable time lost from business in the city.

THEIR INFANT DEAD

Only Child of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Martin Passed Away Last Night.

Friends will most tenderly sympathize with Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Martin in the death of their only child, William Augustus, aged 10 months, which occurred at 11 o'clock last night at the family home, No. 809 South Seventh street after a severe illness of only about ten days with pneumonia. The child was particularly bright and was the joy of a devoted father's and a loving mother's heart. Their bereavement seems almost more than they can bear and friends will deeply console with them in the sorrow that has come so unexpectedly and sadly to them. The funeral will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence and friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

LINCOLN'S RULE FOR LIVING

"Keep Your Digestion Good"

"Do not worry, eat three square meals a day, say your prayers, be courteous to your creditors, keep your digestion good, exercise, go slow and go easy. Maybe there are other things that your special case requires to make you happy, but my friend, these I reckon, will give you a good lift."

Follow Lincoln's words of wisdom and keep your digestion good. When you have dyspepsia, indigestion or any form of stomach trouble you can eat what you want and eat heartily if you take Kodol. Starvation seems a strange remedy for any disease; yet starvation by vigorous diet was once generally resorted to in case of indigestion or other stomach trouble. Even yet it is sometimes tried. Such a remedy is worse than useless. Every day of life consumes a portion of the tissues of the human body. The food we eat serves to repair this waste and to build up the system you must not withhold material for that purpose. When the stomach cannot furnish it the task must be performed without the stomach's assistance. Kodol is the only preparation that does this. Every tablespoonful will digest 2 1/4 pounds of food. Any one who wants a healthy stomach can have it. Merely take care of the stomach when it is working properly and take Kodol when it commences to go wrong. Kodol will find the weak spot. Our guarantee: Get a dollar bottle of Kodol. If you are not benefited—the druggist will at once return your money. Don't hesitate; any druggist will sell you Kodol on these terms. The dollar bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the 50c bottle. Kodol is prepared in the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

state that all applications for renewal of license must be made to the Board in writing, and that pilots applying for renewal of license must show that they have complied with the requirements of Section 7, above referred to. There will be a special meeting of the Board, probably on April 28th, to pass upon such applications.

Report of findings of the Marine sounding committee was received and ordered filed. Pilot J. A. Burdiss, one of the pilots appointed on the committee to take these soundings, failed to file the report, although duly advised by the clerk of his appointment on the committee and the Commissioners ordered that he be cited to appear at the next meeting of the Board and show cause why he should not be fined $10 for failure to comply with instructions as provided for in Rule No. 12 on page No. 4 of the Port and Harbor Regulations.

Commissioner Guthrie called the attention of the Board to the fact that there appears to be a lack of public information with reference to the Port of Wilmington, which is prejudicial to the commerce of this place. He referred particularly to a hydrographic report which included Beaufort, N. C., on the north, and Charleston, S. C., on the south, but which made no mention of Wilmington. Commissioner Guthrie also stated that other publications were lacking in full information in regard to the Port of Wilmington, which information should be supplied through the proper sources, and he requested that the chairman of the Board communicate with Senator Overman in Washington and ask that he kindly call upon the Hydrographic office and endeavor to have the oversight corrected.

The chairman was also requested to urge upon Senator Overman his official efforts towards effecting a restoration of the U. S. Weather Bureau station at Southport, which was abolished a number of years ago and which has been greatly missed, not only by local shipping and pilots, but by many vessels passing up and down the coast, particularly pleasure yachts, which put in at Southport for weather information. It was pointed out to the Board that the signal man now on the station furnishes belated information, often of no use to shipping, but that the restoration of the Weather Bureau station would enable the life saving stations to repeat the signals for the benefit of passing vessels and would also give warning of approaching storms.

Commissioner Harper referred to the fact that Pilot William St. George had recently brought in over the bar and up the river, upon an ordinary tide, the British steamer "Dalhousie," loaded with nitrate of soda, from Topicalia, drawing 25 feet over the bar, in salt water, and 24 feet up the river, in fresh water, making the run in about three hours. Captain Harper remarked that the commander of the vessel had highly complimented Pilot St. George for his skillfulness, and the clerk was instructed to make a record of this incident, commending Pilot St. George for his efficiency.

The clerk was instructed to place in his book of records a clipping from the daily paper which refers to the recent visit to Wilmington of Commander Hetherington and Captain Comly, on the U. S. steamer "Cyprus" for the purpose of discussing further the question of river lights and ranges.

SOROSIS MUSIC RECITAL.

Charlotte Observer's Estimate of Prof. Hagedorn to Appear Here.

Much interest is being manifested in Wilmington musical circles over the forthcoming recital to be given under the auspices of the Music Department of Sorosis in the Boys' Brigade armory on the evening of the 19th. Of Prof. Hagedorn, violinist, who will be one of the artists to appear here, the Charlotte Observer says: "Mr. Hagedorn, violinist, made his first appearance before the Charlotte public and made a fine impression. His selections were: (a) Reverie by Vieuxtemps, and (b) Mazurka by Zaretsky, two delightful compositions, each being just what one imagines the names indicate. Mr. Hagedorn plays with ease and accuracy and shows a true musical temperament. He was generously applauded and rendered as an encore 'The Rosary' by Nevin, which almost brought down the house."

SEMINOLE ON SEARCH.

Cutter Steamed Seaward on Lookout For Schooner Carlisle.

Responding to messages from Beaufort port yesterday morning and went north to search for the schooner A. & M. Carlisle, which has been reported in the vicinity of Cape Hatteras.

The distressed vessel was towed by the steamer Prinz Joachim, bound to New York, for two hours on Monday, but the steamer left her after the hawser parted and the crew refused to abandon the vessel. The cutter received report of the disabled schooner that day, but Capt. Broadbent was of the opinion that she was out of his territory. A later report stated that she was off Hatteras and the cutter shortly afterwards left in search of her. The vessel is practically wrecked, the mainmast being broken and the mizzen-top gone. She was bound from Norfolk to Charleston.

Carson, who was a boarder in Mrs. King's house. The shot which struck Mrs. King was aimed at supposed burglars. Carson was exonerated by the coroner's jury.

SPLENDID ADDRESSES

century and bade his hearers follow him in the development of God's eternal plan and purpose for the ultimate Christianization of the entire world. He sketched rapidly successive attempts of Mohammedans and Turks to crush out Christianity and vividly pictured the hand of God in staying this obstruction to the rapid spread of Christianity to the Northwest.

He said that he was no specialist in Calvin and his life but in his doctrine he was a firm believer and could see in his teachings the basis for a line of thought which he desired to present to his audience showing the hand of God all through the ages for bringing the world to His Kingdom. The eternal purpose of God he said was revealed in both the old and new Testament, in the life of Christ and in the Apostolic writings, quoting freely from the scriptures and from the Psalms in carrying out his thought of God's purpose of carrying the gospel to all the world. This phase of the subject was most convincingly and interestingly developed. That it was the foreordained plan and purpose of God to bring about this evangelization was also shown in the results in missionary lands. In no heathen country where missionaries have gone has there been a lack of response, clearly indicating that it is God's will and purpose that His Kingdom should be so advanced by His followers on earth. The effect in missionary fields had been not only upon individuals but upon countries and governments. From his experience personally in India during the late '90s there had been no better ally of good government in that country than the gospel preached there by the missionaries. Then, too, it was shown to be God's will in the reflex influence on the home, on the congregation and on the church generally from which missionaries had gone out.

Dr. White later gave a most interesting review of the eternal purpose of God in the discovery of America and the events which followed, declaring his belief that it was foreordained that this country should gain the prestige which it now enjoys according to the plan manifest way back as far as the days of Abraham of bringing the world to Christianity. He quoted from a speech made by Lord Roseberry in England in which he conceded that it was even best for Great Britain that America should have her independence in working out the great world plan of civilization and Christianity. In it all Dr. White could see the hand of God and His eternal plan and purpose which now culminated in the end of a great movement which is but the beginning of another for the Christianizing of the whole world, imposing upon this age and generation a responsibility which cannot be escaped. One, he said, is amazed in the present situation, particularly the last few months in China in the unfolding of the eternal purposes of God toward the non-Christian world. He exhorted his hearers to a study of history in the light of the Scriptures, for it knows all things. In the light of all these things he commended the congregation to the blessings and responsibilities of Abraham to whom was given the promise four thousand years ago that all nations should be added unto him. It was thrilling to think that the present generation has a part in bringing the world to its solidarity to Christ.

Dr. White spoke less than an hour and was given the closest attention of all under the sound of his voice. He is a magnetic speaker, of commanding presence and an easy and graceful delivery.

Upon the conclusion of the address Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, offered prayer and after announcements by Dr. Wells of the sessions of Presbytery today, the congregation was dismissed with a benediction by Dr. White.

Presbytery Sessions. Presbytery convened its second day's session yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with a report on Colored Evangelization by Rev. P. McIntyre showing what has been accomplished for this cause during the past year. This was followed by Rev. Mr. Shields' splendid address on Missions. Rev. Mr. Shields as superintendent of this work in behalf of Synod, is a specialist in this line, and presented his cause with much earnestness and optimism. He was heard with much impression by the Presbytery.

Following the address of Dr. Smith, Presbytery adjourned until afternoon when the sessions reconvened at 3 o'clock with a report on Foreign Missions by Rev. J. S. Crowley, who is greatly interested in this work, being himself, with his good wife, for many years in the foreign field. This department showed much satisfactory work since last meeting, including especially fine work by the women of the Presbytery. The report of this committee was most aptly followed by the splendid address of Dr. White last night, closing the features of the day.

Presbytery will resume its sessions this morning and members of that body and the people of Wilmington at large will have the rare opportunity and privilege of hearing at 11 A. M.

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vienna, W. Va.—"I feel that I owe the last ten years of my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Eleven years ago I was a walking shadow. I had been under the doctor's care but got no relief. My husband persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like a charm. It relieved all my pains and misery. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MRS. EMMA WHEATON, Vienna, W. Va.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

an address by Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta, on "The Life of the Man, John Calvin." At 8 P. M. "The Distinctive Doctrine of John Calvin" will be expounded by the Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. These promises to be two of the best addresses in the series in honor of John Calvin and it is hoped large congregations will be present for both.

At 3 P. M. the Presbytery in regular session will hear the report of the standing committee on Home Missions. This is one of the most important considerations of Wilmington Presbytery and all delegates are urged to be present. The public will be cordially welcomed also.

The morning session of Presbytery will convene at 9:30 A. M. as usual.

SHOW DAY IN TOWN.

Two Exhibitions Yesterday by the Sparks' Aggregation—Parade.

It is estimated that something like 5,000 people witnessed the two exhibitions of the John H. Sparks Shows in the vacant lot at Fourth and Castle streets yesterday afternoon and last night. The street parade yesterday shortly after noon was small but very creditable to a tented enterprise of no greater pretensions. The live stock showed up to fine advantage and the performing riders, both male and female, presented a marked contrast in the freshness and brightness of their faces and costumes to the ordinary travelling people with shows. The exhibition at the tent consisted of a one-ring performance with platform, the trapeze work being spoken of as especially good. The show left this morning for a tour along the W. & W. railroad.

CHAUFFEUR FINALLY CAUGHT.

Confessed That He Ran Down and Killed Son of Kentucky Lawyer.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.) Port Arthur, Texas, April 7.—William Darrah, wanted in New York city, charged with having run down and killed Inghard Trimble, the 12-year-old son of R. D. Trimble, a Kentucky lawyer, was arrested when he arrived here today after "tramping" from New York. Darrah when arrested admitted his identity and expressed a willingness to return to New York. Darrah admits that he was driving the automobile which ran down young Trimble, but declares that the accident was unavoidable; that he struck the boy while endeavoring to avoid running down others. He attributed his arrest to a letter he wrote to a young woman acquaintance in New York when he left the city immediately after the accident, informing her of his destination.

United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman will be the guest of honor and one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the South Carolina Carolinians in New York April 22nd. Members of other Southern States societies and of the Southern Society have been invited to attend the dinner.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Newbern Journal: Forest fires are burning fiercely in Onslow county along the line of the Atlantic Coast Line road. There appears to be no way to stop them, except by a generous downpour of rain.

—Lumberton Robesonian: C. A. Ammons, who lived near Fairmont, near Mr. Frank Faulk's, committed suicide Friday night at a barn near his home by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun. His wife, who is a daughter of the late J. B. Lewis, survives. Mr. Ammons was a man of considerable means. No cause is assigned for the deed except that he had been drinking a great deal lately.

—Salisbury Post: Mr. Walter George Newman was in the city a short while this morning returning to New York from Gold Hill. He has been at the Union mine since Sunday and is full of enthusiasm for the mine. He says he has discovered eight other separate gold veins in virgin soil, in the vicinity of the Union mine and on this mining property. Mr. Newman says he loves North Carolina and intends to turn things over in Rowan.

—Asheville Citizen: A forest fire which started in some unknown manner on the Biltmore estate burned fiercely all Saturday night and yesterday morning until it was finally got under control by the estate forest rangers. The fire burned over about one hundred acres of woods before it could be checked. While little damage was done to the larger growth, the young trees were killed and the loss of the leaves and turf which are used for fertilizing purposes on the estate make the loss considerable.

—Kinston Free Press: The congregation of the First Baptist church was stirred with feelings of deepest gratitude Sunday morning, when immediately after the morning service, the pastor, Rev. H. W. Battle, D. D., announced that he had listened to the importuning of the members of the congregation and decided to withdraw his resignation and would remain as pastor of the church. He took this step after prayerful consideration. After the announcement, a business session was held and nearly a thousand dollars was raised and the indebtedness of the church was obliterated.

—Asheville Citizen: Consternation prevailed among the police yesterday morning when Substitute Police Judge J. G. Adams announced that he could not convict a man for selling liquor simply on the evidence of one witness when the defendant swore he did not sell. The police maintain that it is almost impossible to secure more than one witness against a man for selling liquor since ordinarily the seller will not allow others to be present at the sale, and the sentiment was expressed that while holding Judge Adams in personal regard it would be best to present no more liquor selling cases until Judge Reynolds returns.

—The Enterprise: One of the most complete plants in the South is the Silk Mill here. The mill is a large brick structure, employing 125 girls and is systematized to perfection. The management has recently put in stools in the mill so that the girls may sit while doing their work. This is appreciated by the girls. There is also a well regulated laundry in connection with the mill which does the laundry for the entire mill force. The mill has on hand all the time 200,000 gallons of water and can get all they need on short notice. It has its own fire department and generates its own electricity. The engine room, operative rooms and every other department is as clean as attention can make it.

—Special to News and Observer: Washington, D. C., April 6.—To Representative John H. Small, the President today mentioned the name of ex-Congressman Fred A. Woodard in connection with the judgeship. Mr. Woodard is not a candidate for the position, and on the contrary, he went to the White House to urge the selection of Judge Connor. The mention of his name by Mr. Taft is therefore in the nature of a compliment. The President and Mr. Woodard became acquainted last summer at Hot Springs, Va. Having business in Baltimore, the Wilson lawyer decided to stop over here in order to pay his respects to Mr. Taft and to say a good word for Judge Connor. It would seem that Mr. Taft has justly formed a mighty good opinion of Mr. Woodard and is considering him in connection with the judgeship.

—Wadesboro Ansonian: Dr. L. C. Smith of Polkton has secured a patent on a nut lock that promises to be worth something. There are really two features of the invention, the first being a small pin that fits a groove in the bolt and a corresponding one in the nut. The pin has two ears or lips on the lower end which spread when it is driven up, thus preventing the pin from moving and at the same time, holding the nut at its intended position on the bolt. The other feature is a washer made of tempered steel to fit between the nut and wood or iron work to be held into position by the bolt. This washer has several ears that spring up against the nut, when it is run up, so as to prevent its turning in the direction that runs it off. Either of these features is sufficient to make any bolt perfectly safe and the invention will be welcomed by railway men.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeton, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead—he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. His cures of Eczema, Itch, Sores, Boils, Burns and Piles around the world. 25c at R. R. Bellamy.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
 New York, April 7.—The cotton market was rather nervous and irregular today, but was well maintained considering the reactionary tendency natural after an advance of over 60 points and the disposition to take profits prior to the three-day adjournment for over the Eastern holidays. The close was steady, net one point lower to one point higher.
 The market opened at unchanged prices to a decline of 3 points in response to somewhat lower cables, realizing and renewed selling for a turn by local professionals who thought there must be a reduction in the long interest before the close on Thursday. But there was good buying from the start on reports from the market and talk of an improving demand for cotton goods in Fall River. Before the advance was checked prices had worked up to a net advance of 5 to 7 points or within 2 or 3 points of yesterday's high level. Subsequent fluctuations were rather narrow and irregular, with the market gradually selling back to about the closing figures of last night under realizing, while it looked as though local professionals who had covered early sales on the bulge late in the forenoon were again taking the short side for a turn on the theory that pre-holiday realizing would be heavier tomorrow. The weather map showed no precipitation in the Southwest, and the forecast was for partly cloudy, but dry weather.
 Advices received after the close reported rainfall of 1.05 inches at Kerrville, Texas, and there were rumors of showers in other sections. Southern spot markets officially reported were generally unchanged.

Receipts at the ports today were 12,275 bales, against 22,530 last week and 20,558 last year; for the week 90,000 bales, against 97,651 last week and 99,899 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 5,555 bales, against 8,413 last year and at Houston 4,829 bales, against 1,599 last year.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
 New York, April 7.—Trade in print cloths and convertibles continues steady. Wash goods are also in active call. In the retail dry goods and jobbing markets trade is rather on the quiet side although the tone is called healthy. There is a steady call for spot shipment of silk foulards and pongees.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
 New York, April 7.—The speculative element regarded the day's stock market as slow. The sales for the day in themselves indicate a deep cut in the volume of the market from the recently prevailing average. Then, although the reactionary tendency of yesterday was arrested and some progress towards recovery effected, the renewed advance lacked vigor and breadth. The speculative element had an explanation for the halt that they themselves and large operators in general were disinclined to enter on expensive new commitments with a three-day closed interval facing them at the end of the week with the Easter holidays.

In spite of the lapse into dullness the undertone of the speculation was strong. The anthracite groups supplied the conspicuous example of strength among the railroads. This was attributed to the belief that those companies will win concessions from the minors in the convention over the renewal of the wage agreement.
 Outside of the coalers the strong stocks were found among industrials and such minor railroad stocks as are classified with the specialties. Reports from the steel trade continued somewhat discouraging, but the demand which has sprung up for the structural steel at the low prices is considered an important augury of construction and improvement on a large scale in many cities.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, were $5,878,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 720,100 shares.

DEBARKS AT MARTINIQUE

Great Britain Acting in Concert With United States—France Contemplates Refusing Him Refuge on Martinique.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)
Fort de France, Martinique, April 7.—Cipriano Castro, enraged against the British Government and the State Department at Washington, left the steamer Guadeloupe at this port today and has taken up quarters on shore. Finding all ports in the West Indies excepting Fort de France barred against him, the present course was the only one left open to the former Venezuelan Dictator. Senor Castro's wife will continue on board the Guadeloupe to LaGuayra.

The American cruiser Montana came into port this morning.

The Guadeloupe, on board which Castro and his party sailed from France, March 26th after four months spent in Europe, came into port from France last evening. While at Point-A-Pitre on the island of Guadeloupe, where the steamer touched yesterday, Castro was notified by the British consul that the British Government had decided not to permit him to disembark at Port of Spain, Trinidad; consequently Castro decided to leave the Guadeloupe here.

The decision of the British Government, acting on a request from the State Department at Washington not to let him land at Trinidad was communicated to Castro a second time this morning. He expressed himself as exceedingly annoyed and angry at this decision, which he characterized as a violation of the rights of man. He is furious against the American Government and the steamship company.

The latter refused to let him continue on board the Guadeloupe to Colon. After expressing his annoyance at this unexpected turn in his affairs, Castro disclaimed the bellicose intentions with regard to the existing political situation in Venezuela with which he has been credited, and he declared that his only purpose in returning to Venezuela was to give his attention to his private business. Castro appears still to be in ill health.

The steamer Guadeloupe left here at noon today for Port of Spain and Venezuelan points. She was followed out of the harbor by the cruiser Montana.

Caracas, Tuesday, April 6.—Via Willemstad Curacao, April 7) The Venezuelan Government has sounded France to ascertain whether or not difficulties would be encountered if Cipriano Castro were arrested on board the steamer Guadeloupe at a Venezuelan port. The reply of France indicated that she would make no protest in such an event.

Paris, April 7.—The French Government will undertake to prevent Cipriano Castro from using French territory as a base of operations against the present government of Venezuela. This understanding follows exchanges and is in full accord with the wishes of the American Government.

Furthermore, the French Government is considering the advisability of expelling Castro from the island of Martinique, where he now is. No decision on this point, however, yet has been reached.

FIRE ON COTTON STEAMER

She Puts in at Norfolk With Her Cargo On Fire.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Norfolk, Va., April 7.—The Italian steamer Moncenisio, en route from New Orleans to Genoa, with a cotton cargo, made this port today with fire in her hold, at hatch. Tugs succeeded in controlling the flames by the use of steam.

The ship will be examined tomorrow morning to determine the extent of damage. It is not believed she is much damaged. It is roughly estimated that 300 bales of cotton were touched by the flames. The fire was discovered off Hatteras last night, but was successfully controlled by the crew and confined to one hatch. The ship coals here.

OFFICERS INDICTED FOR MURDER

Charged With Shooting a Man in Attempt at Arrest.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Fitzgerald, Ga., April 7.—Indictments charging murder were returned by the Irwin county grand jury today against Chief of Police Bruebaker and Patrolman Johnson, who on Saturday night shot to death Robert Gresham, manager of a local mill, the officers stating that they were "after" him for an alleged theft and shot him down only after he had fired shots at them in a dark alleyway. The officers are in jail without bond.

SPEAKER CANNON IS OVERRULED

House Reverses His Decision
Against Tariff Bill Amendments.

CANNON'S STRONG APPEAL

To Republicans Not to Allow Amendment to Oil Schedule of no Avail.
Coal Oil Practically on Free
List—Proceedings.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Washington, April 7.—This was a bad day for the Republican organization of the House. By a coalition between some Republican "insurgents" and the Democrats, the Ways and Means Committee was bowled over and the advocates of free crude oil and its products won a signal victory when an amendment by Mr. Norris, of Nebraska, placing the insignificant duty of 1 per cent. ad valorem on those articles was adopted by a substantial majority.

A decision of the chairman that amendments could not be offered to the oil schedule other than the one covered by the special rule of last Monday and which provided for the removal of the countervailing duty on crude petroleum and applying an ad valorem duty of 25 per cent., was overturned and not even a fervid appeal by the Speaker, in an endeavor to rally the Republican forces was sufficient to stem the tide avowedly against the Standard Oil Company. By a practically unanimous vote the countervailing duty went out as the committee recommended.

On all other propositions the committee was sustained. The barley schedule ran the gauntlet without change. Tea and coffee were placed on the free list, and the duty on barytes increased from 75 cents a ton to $1.50 a ton.

A colloquy, at first humorous, but later developing into personalities, developed between Mr. Stanley, of Kentucky, and Mr. Clark, of Florida, and was terminated only upon an objection by Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana, that it was against the dignity of the House.

When the oil schedule was taken up, Mr. Vreeland, of New York, promptly offered an amendment striking out the countervailing duty on crude petroleum and its products, and fixing the rate of duty at 25 per cent. ad valorem. Immediately Mr. Norris, of Nebraska, presented an amendment fixing the rate at 1 per cent. ad valorem.

"Point of order," shouted Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, and then a dozen members were on their feet.

"Is that schedule so sacred you cannot amend it at all?" inquired Mr. Clark, of Missouri.

Mr. Dalzell answered that that was the situation.

"Well," interjected Mr. Clark, "I will try it anyway." He then offered an amendment putting crude petroleum and its products on the free list.

A long wrangle ensued over the right of anyone to offer amendments other than the one by Mr. Vreeland, which, it was stated by Mr. Dalzell, was covered specifically by the rule.

In an elaborate decision the chair sustained the point of order, saying that the Vreeland amendment was in line with the rule. The Norris amendment in consequence was barred.

From the decision, Mr. Clark, of Missouri, appealed with the result that on division the ruling was reversed 125 to 173. Many Republicans, mostly from Wisconsin and Kansas, voted with the Democrats.

Mr. Dalzell at once demanded tellers and the vote again was against him 125 to 168. This result finally rendered negative the chair's decision and opened up the whole petroleum schedule for any number of amendments. Great applause greeted the announcement of the vote.

Mr. Fitzgerald, of New York, in a spirited speech, took occasion to deny the charge which he said had been repeatedly made, that his official actions were controlled by the Standard Oil Company. He supported the Norris amendment because he believed it would seriously cripple the abilities of the Standard Oil Company. He then shouted:

"I fling back into the dirty mouths of these calumniators, the vile insinuations that have been directed at me through the dirty, improper and discreditable prints of the country, by those who have not had the courage to make those statements to me face to face in a way in which they would be responsible for their words."

A bitter attack against the Standard Oil Company was made by Mr. Cooper, of Wisconsin, in favor of the Norris amendment. Seeing the wave of sentiment in favor of the amendment Speaker Cannon took the floor and warned the members of the dangers ahead. He made a plea for the American producer of oil. The amendment, he declared, was designed to punish the wicked Standard Oil Company. The adoption of the Norris amendment, he said, would let in practically free refined oil from Mexico.

The House adopted the amendment by Mr. Norris placing a duty of one per cent. ad valorem on crude petroleum and its products, and that by Mr. Vreeland striking out the countervailing duty on crude petroleum and its products.

The bill was then laid aside and House at 5:03 o'clock adjourned.

Senator Gallinger has re-introduced the bill providing for a separate building for the Supreme Court of the United States, to be situated just outside of the Capitol grounds and immediately north of the Congressional library building. The total cost of the building is fixed at $8,000,000.

SAMPSON MURDER TRIAL

Parents and Two Brothers of Mrs. Sampson on Stand For Prosecution—Points Made For Defense Through Them.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)
Lyons, N. Y., April 7.—The father and mother, and two brothers of Mrs. Georgia Sampson, charged with the killing of her husband, Harry Sampson, were called to the witness stand today by District Attorney Gilbert to give evidence on which the State is depending to convict Mrs. Georgia Sampson of murder.

A sad figure in the court room was the widowed mother of Harry Sampson, Mrs. George Sampson, who probably will be called as a witness tomorrow.

The defense scored several material points today through the testimony of the members of the Allyn family. It was established, notably, that shortly before Harry Sampson staggered into the Allyn dining room and fell dead, Mrs. Sampson was seen on the second floor of her home.

Through Mrs. Allyn, the State's attorneys brought out the fact that Robert Manson, of Niagara Falls, had written to Georgia inviting her and a friend, Miss Mildred Cervoss, to spend a few days in Niagara Falls.

Harry quarreled with his wife over the letter. Mrs. Sampson's lawyers state that Manson had written asking Mrs. Sampson to act as a chaperon. A sensational bit of testimony was offered by John Ebert, a neighbor, who declared that Harry Sampson had smokeless powder cartridges in his possession on the day of the shooting. The defense contends that this explains why no powder marks were visible on Sampson's shirt.

Carl Allyn, a brother of Georgia, testified that he had burned the outer shirt that Harry had worn when he was shot and that the black shirt in the district attorney's possession was probably another shirt of the dead man.

AMENDMENTS TO TARIFF BILL.

As Agreed Upon by Ways and Means Committee.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Washington, April 7.—The Ways and Means committee today agreed to several important amendments to the Payne tariff bill.

Paragraph 328 was changed to tax the tire fabrics, or fabrics used for pneumatic tires at 45 per cent. ad valorem. This is meant to tax long staple cotton, used in the fabric.

In the steel and iron schedules, steel ingots, blooms and slabs were reduced from one cent to 3-10 of a cent and from 4-10 to 3-10 a cent a pound. The ad valorem duty on boiler and plate iron or steel was stricken out. Some of them were made specific and others were slightly reduced.

Strain Too Great

Hundreds of Wilmington Readers Find Daily Toil a Burden.

The hustle and worry of business men. The hard work and stooping of workmen. The woman's household cares. Are too great a strain on the kidneys. Backache, headache, sideache, kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow.

A Wilmington citizen tells you how to cure them all. James Hansley, 309 North Fifth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "For some time my back and kidneys troubled me, no doubt due to constant standing. I had dull, nagging backaches and a sharp pain across my loins. I could not stoop or lift without having twinges throughout my body. The kidney secretions contained a heavy sediment and were too frequent in passage. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and used them as directed. In a few days the backache and other annoyances ceased and have not returned since. I give this testimonial in the hopes that some other sufferer from kidney trouble may be benefited thereby."

FREIGHT STEAMER RAMMED.

Passenger Steamer Havana in Collision Off Staten Island.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 7.—The Ward Line steamer Havana ran into the Munson Line freighter Cubana near the Quarantine station on Staten Island at 7:20 A. M. today, tearing a large hole in the Cubana's side near the stern. The Havana was not damaged.

The Cubana, which arrived from Matanzas, Cuba last night, was anchored off the quarantine station when the Havana, struck the freighter on the port quarter. The Havana's stem cut a gash in the Cubana's side extending below the water line and the freighter began to fill. Tugs towed her in shore until she grounded on Staten Island. The Havana proceeded to her dock.
